Pyramis Solutions Ltd

About 'Working Sessions'

A working session is a specific 2hr block of time purchased for the purpose of performing activities as defined prior to the meeting, it will have a clear objective however this may not necessarily be the sole focus or achieved if another priority item emerges just before or during a session.

This time includes any preparation required by Pyramis Solutions Consultants, activity or meetings, either in person or via phone/video conference and any follow-up activity required including email.

It is also at the discretion whether the Pyramis Solutions Consultant accepts the appointment due to availability and travel, this will be discussed prior to any payment request. Travel costs are not included within the 'Working Session' Fee and where reimbursement is required, this will be agreed before the session is confirmed.

The Pyramis Solutions Consultant has the right to cease further work once the session time purchased has been used by the client. As the working session is highly reliant on a diary system, lateness from the client or insufficient notice (as detailed below) will, by default, use the session time booked and/or reduce actual time in the session. Any lost time due to the Consultants circumstances will be returned to the client either by extending the session time or kept in lieu for another date & time as agreed.

All 'Working Sessions' are paid in advance and will only be confirmed as booked once payment has been received unless other payment terms have been agreed by the Consultant involved. Agreed payment terms will be detailed on the invoice.

For packages of sessions, these are not booked until full payment has been received, a confirmation will be provided for each appointment that has been confirmed. Due to the nature of the product, making full payment does not automatically allocate any time or regular date to you, each session will require agreement between client and Consultant.

Schedule A: Further Information

Basis of Fees

Our fees are either per agreed package or calculated on the basis of time spent on your affairs and the responsibility and skill involved to perform such tasks. The rate of charging has been agreed and our current standard rates are available separately by request at any time. Any specific terms around the frequency of billing have also been agreed in advance and will be detailed on your schedule of services document.

Pyramis Solutions reserves the right to review our standard rates at least annually if there are any changes to the current rates agreed; the client will be notified 3 months in advance of the changes taking effect.

Unless specifically agreed, payment is due in advance and invoices are due upon receipt.

Anti-Money Laundering Legislation

All accountants must comply with the duties imposed by the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002, the Terrorism Act 2000 and the Money Laundering Regulations 2007 (the Anti Money Laundering Legislation), which are intended to inhibit the activities of terrorists and other criminals by denying them access to technical expertise. If we fail to perform these duties, we risk imprisonment.

Before we accept your instructions, we may need to obtain 'satisfactory evidence' to confirm your identity. In certain circumstances, we may need to obtain evidence confirming the identities of third parties, the source of any funds or other property, the purpose of any instructions or any other matter. We may also need to obtain such evidence after we have begun to act on your instructions.

We assume that our clients are honest and law abiding. However, if at any time, there appear to be grounds to suspect that your instructions relate to 'criminal property', we are obliged to make a report to the Serious Organised Crime Agency (SOCA), but we are prohibited from telling you that we have done so.

Client Monies

Pyramis Solutions do not hold any client monies, we also do not collect or pay money out from any account owned or managed by Pyramis Solutions on behalf of our clients, all transactions remain in the client's own account and they have ultimate control.

Ownership of Records

The standard contract for our book-keeping service expects you to have both ownership and control of your own records; Pyramis Solutions will use your existing systems. Alternatively, if no system is in place or requires improvement, Pyramis Solutions is familiar with cloud-based applications and can be added as a guest collaborator/administrator/user to maintain the book-keeping, again this is still controlled by the client.

File Destruction

Whilst certain documents may legally belong to you, if they have been provided to us and are not required to be returned, unless you tell us not to, we intend to destroy correspondence and other papers that we store when they are more than seven years old, other than documents which we think may be of continuing significance. If you require the retention of any document, you must notify us of that fact in writing.

Client Relations

We are committed to providing a high standard of client service. If you have any ideas as to how our service to you could be improved, or if you are dissatisfied with the service you are receiving, please let us know. In the event that you have a complaint, we will look into this carefully and promptly and do all we can to explain the position to you or address your concerns. In the unlikely event that you are not satisfied with our response, you may make a complaint to the Association of Accounting Technicians. We will provide you with their contact details on request.

Third Parties & Confidentiality

All accounts, statements and reports prepared by us are for exclusive use within your business only, and not for use as a third party reporting without your further processing.

All work prepared by us and any discussion between us will be treated with the strictest confidentiality. The only acceptable break in confidentiality will be deemed required by law such as Anti Money Laundering Legislation previously mentioned.
